AUGUST 27, 1995

#155

60c

---

Sorry, folks, but this is a lackluster 155th issue of Lemon Curry, brought to you by Don Del Grande, 142 Eliseo Drive, Greenbrae, CA 94904-1339, phone (+1) 415 925 8921 (but only 7 PM to 11 PM Pacific time - that's 0200-0600 GMT through October 28, then 0300-0700 after that), E-mail del\_gran@ix.netcom.com. I wanted this to be a bigger issue, but I couldn't get enough players from two different openings to respond to even continue one game between them, so I'll give them another month to react.

MONTY'S NEWS AND COMMENT is brought to you by the site of the 1996 DIPCON and frontrunner for WORLD DIP CON V...

Your guess is as good as mine; the only report I got from Avaloncon was from Boris the Spider and it didn't mention Diplomacy at all. Since Jim Yerkey doesn't have Internet or E-mail access, I couldn't send him an E-mail either. Does anybody know the DIPCON results, both of the tournament and the Dipcon Society Meeting? (Note that the WDC site will be determined at this year's WDC in Paris, but it's "North America's turn" and chances are that the only site that will be bidding will be the DIPCON site, whatever it is.)

Speaking of conventions, there's a report that whoever is running ORIGINS nowadays (is it still Andon?) has found a site for 1996: after the problems with Philadelphia and the delays in getting the Pittsburgh site ready, they've settled on Columbus. Apparently, they're working on making Baltimore the new "permanent site" beginning in 1999.

WRESTLING REPORT: You can stop calling him "I.R.S." now; Mike Rotunda (aka Mike Rotundo, aka Michael Wallstreet) has gone "back" to WCW, where he should be going by his own name again. Joining him in moving from WWF to WCW will be Lex Luger (now you know the real reason Davey Boy Smith attacked him; it's an excuse to break them up so Luger can leave), who will probably start by being "yet another big name wrestler to lose to Hulk Hogan", although it's almost time for Hogan to get injured again so the fans who don't know any better will think he's hurt when he's really making new episodes of his TV series.

Of course, all of this is small potatoes compared to the big question: Dustin Rhodes, WHAT WERE YOU SMOKING WHEN YOU AGREED TO BE "GOLDUST"? (Note that he's been in WWF before, as himself, teaming up with his father Dusty (in his "polka-dot man" days; I guess "the apple doesn't fall far from the tree" after all) against the Million Dollar Corporation in its early days.)

Maybe it was the same stuff that Ted Turner must have been on when he came up with the idea for a TNT wrestling show to go up against USA's Monday Night Raw...

GAME OPENINGS

DIPLOMACY - There are openings in two (count 'em) two orphaned games I picked up; contact me by September 28 if you want in

RAILWAY RIVALS - Goode, Stimmel, C. Brosius (not confirmed), Bowen (if he's out there anywhere) signed up; could use one or two more players before I start

HISTORY OF THE WORLD - Another game will begin when the current one ends, which should be sometime this month

E-MAIL KINGMAKER - Two players have expressed interest; looking for at least two more. This will be run FTF-style; a player will move his units, then the results will be E-mailed to the next player, who sends in moves, and the results are E-mailed to the next player, and so on.

OOPS - did that say 1996 Runestone Poll? Just for that (well, and the 'zine size), this issue is only 50 cents, not 60
